The Training programme of newly subscribed law database Lexis Nexis was organized by LIRC on November 19, 2015 for giving the hands on experience to users about the use of database. Ms. Shweta, Training Manager from Lexis Nexis has come to provide the training. The training was started at 12.30 pm at seminar hall on ground floor. The training programme was attended by over 100+ students of BBA LLB, LLM and faculty members of law school.

The trainer that database covers, Cases, Legislation, Commentary, Forms & Precedents, 1000+ Journals, Dictionaries and general information of law. She provided the information that how the relevant information can be searched from the database. She informed that the database has access to all international law i.e. US legal system, UK legal system, Australian legal system, Canadian legal system and many more.
Mr. Deepak Sharma, Assistant Librarian informed all that the database is accessible through our IP ranges and can be accessed remotely through VPN.

At last, Assistant Librarian thanked Acting HOD Law School for his help and Ms. Shewta for providing useful training to our users.
