A five day Faculty Development Programme was successfully conducted in ITMU, from 8th June – 12th June 2015 by the School of Law. The FDP Programme received overwhelming response with numerous participants from within the campus and outside.

Date wise brief Report for each of the five days FDP Programme is given below :

DAY 1- INAUGURATION AND LECTURE ON CORPORATE PRACTICES AND ADVOCACY SKILLS
Date: 8th June 2015 (First Day)

The programme was inaugurated on 8th June 2015 by Neeraj Grover (Sr. Partner, Kocchar & Kocchar). In the welcome speech, he shared his views with the faculty participants that if faculty wants to develop themselves and their students, then attending such faculty development programmes would enhance their skills of teaching concepts practically. He further shared that it helps to improve the performance of faculty in teaching and highlighted the importance and objectives of organizing faculty development programmes. He briefed the participants about the subjects chosen for the FDP and highlighted the reasons and importance of the same. He also enlightened the participants by his lecture on corporate practice and advocacy skills. He further described about educational philosophy which is gaining popularity in law schools across the country the value derived from the law school is immeasurable. He emphasized how FDP teaches practical skills and provides students a special opportunity to put the legal theories we learn in an abstract manner in the classroom into practice. Also how it trains interns to interact with clients, supervising attorneys, and colleagues, and also prepares them to interact in a courtroom and with opposing counsel.

DAY 2- THEORIES AND TYPES OF PUNISHMENTS WITH PRISON REFORMS

Date: 9th June 2015 (Second Day)

On the second day, Dr. M.S. Verma gave lecture on Theories of Punishment which highlighted the need for reformation of prisoners. He shared few very important aspect to be considered while teaching-learning process. He highlighted the importance learning and gave idea about domains of learning i.e. cognitive, affective, psychomotor and interactive.

DAY 3- HUMAN RIGHTS: WOMEN RIGHTS AND CHILD RIGHTS ISSUES

Date: 10th June 2015 (Third Day)

On the third day, Prof. Elumalai gave insight on child and women rights predominately covering numerous case studies revealing that children’s rights cannot be guaranteed in a hand, the struggles to realize the human rights of women and children have much in common because historically women and children have been legally and socially disadvantaged. On the other hand, gender-based discrimination is deeply embedded in childhood and contributes to the continuum of violence that runs through many women’s and girl’s lives. The human rights framework is an effective entry point for analysis and action to promote gender equality and the rights of children.

DAY 4 - CYBER LAW: CYBER CRIMES AND PUNISHMENT

Date: 11th June 2015 (Fourth Day)

On the fourth day, Prof. Pushpesh Pant delivered lecture on “Cyber Law: Cyber crime and punishment” which highlighted Computer crime in its general sense that embraces crimes as phishing, credit card frauds, bank robbery, illegal downloading, industrial espionage, child pornography, kidnapping children via chat rooms, scams, cyber terrorism, creation and/or distribution of viruses, Spam and so on. All such crimes are computer related and facilitated crimes. He shared his knowledge with participant using by power point presentation and various technique like giving examples etc. It helped to make subject fully understand and created interest among the participants.

DAY 5- RIGHT TO INFORMATION ACT, 2005 (RTI)

Date: 12th June 2015 (Fifth Day)

On the fifth day, Sh. Ramesh Inder Singh started discussion on “Right to Information Act, 2005 (RTI)” highlighted the problems and the concerns regarding the same. The participants gave a good response to the development programme and felt that such programmes should be conducted regularly. All India Radio covered the development programme and became witness to the success of the event.