In spite of so many positive initiatives for woman and child development, both at the international and national level, the situation are still not very promising for these two groups. They still remain as the most vulnerable faction of the society and widespread deprivations in one form or the other are rampant in their cases. School of Law & Center for Post Graduate Legal Studies organized a National Conference on the Protection and Enforcement of the Rights of Women and Children on 24th, 2015. The inaugural session of the conference was presided over by the experts from the fields of Women and Child Law with Ms. Saumya Gupta (I.A.S) Director, Dept. of Women and Child Development, Prof. (Dr.) David Ambrose, Professor and Head, Faculty of Legal Studies, Madras University, Chennai, Mr. Amod Kanth, General Secretary, Prayas Institute of Juvenile Justice. Former DGP and Chairperson, Delhi Commission for Protection of Child Rights, Ian –Anand Forber Pratt, Board Member International Foster Care organization, Ms. Vaidehi- Chairperson Child Welfare Committee VIII Delhi, Ms. Rakshanda Niyazi, Vaish Associates. Various scholars from all over the country presented research papers related to the subject of the conference. There were best paper presenter award in every technical session which were won by Anagha Pedgonkar, M.P. Law College, Ms. Isha Wadhwa and Ms. Ankita Banerjee from Amity University, Noida and Ms. Swamini and Mr. Naveen Yadav from ITM University.