With an aim to deliberate new dimensions in career prospects in law and approaches in legal education, CPGLS & NCU Law School has organized a Symposium on “Legal Education and Career in Law” for law students on 27th October, 2015 in the Auditorium Hall.

Prof. Pushpesh Pant, Dean, NCU Law School while addressing the students stressed on new innovations in imparting clinical legal education, which converts a classroom into court room. Prof. Saligram Bhatt, Professor Emeritus, NCU Law School congratulated the law students for their proactive role towards society on environmental issues. He discussed about the international strategies across the globe in sustainable development. Moreover, he motivated the law students for work for environment and possible career opportunities across the globe.

Prof. Kiran Gupta, Professor-In-Charge, CLC-II, Delhi University while addressing law students reminded about the social obligations of a lawyer towards the society. She delivered a lecture on advocacy skills to law students. Mr. Haleem Khan (Sr. IAS), Director General in Council for Advancement of People's Action & Rural Technology (CAPART) delivered a lecture on relation of law and legal policies in Public Administration. He inspired the law students to appear for public service commission and serve the nation. Lastly, Prof. J. L. Dwivedi, (HCS) Distt. Employment Officer, Gurgaon delivered a lecture on opportunities to law students in judicial services in various Govt. Departments at every level. He was keen on inspiring law students to excel in every area of legal career in Public and Corporate sector. Dr. Arvind P Bhanu, Associate Professor, NCU Law School coordinated the event successfully.