SPECIAL LECTURE

September 5, 2013 (Thursday)
Time: 2.30 PM – 3.30 PM
Venue: Room No. 318, School of Law, ITM University

Topic: Fundamentals of Arbitration

About the Speaker: Aniruddha Rajput, is an advocate practicing in the Supreme Court of India. He also regularly appears before various High Courts, arbitral tribunals and other forums. His practice involves wide variety of work including arbitration, commercial law, securities transactions, mining and electricity matters, public and private international law, taxation laws and constitutional law. He is also a Visiting Professor of International Commercial Arbitration and International Trade Law at the Indian Law Institute for Graduate Programmes. He obtained LLB degree from ILS Law College, Pune where he was awarded the Best Student Award, 2004-2005. He also held rank in the merit list of University of Pune. Thereafter he completed graduation from the London School of Economics and Political Science. He participated in drafting the LCIA- INDIA Arbitration and Mediation Rules and Arbitration and Mediation Rules of Delhi Arbitration Centre constituted by the Delhi High Court. He was invited by Ministry of Law & Justice, Government of India for “National Conference on the proposed amendments to the Arbitration & Conciliation Act,1996”, August, 2010; as a part of the ongoing efforts of the Ministry of Law to strengthen the arbitration framework in India, by proposing amendments to the Arbitration Act, 1996. He has lectured extensively on various legal topics including Foreign Direct Investment, arbitration and various aspects of commercial laws. He is a member of a number of prestigious professional bodies including the Supreme Court Bar Association, Young International Arbitrators Group and Panel of Experts for Arbitration and Commercial Laws.

Note: The lecture is organized for the benefit of the undergraduate students in Year III and IV. However, all are welcome to attend.

http://law.itmindia.edu