SPECIAL LECTURE

September 18, 2013 (Wednesday)
Time: 1.30 PM – 2.30 PM
Venue: Seminar Hall, ITM University

Topic: Mootings Skills – Judges’ Expectations

About the Speaker: Prof. Dr. A. David Ambrose, is currently serving as the Head of the Department of Legal Studies, University of Madras. He is also the Dean, Legal Affairs, University of Madras, and Coordinator, MHRD-IPR Chair. He also holds the position of Chairman, Board of Studies in Law and Human Rights at University of Madras. He has guided more than 15 PhD Scholars and has judged the finals of more than a hundred Moot Court Competitions including the prestigious Philip C Jessup, Manfred Lachs, UNHCR, and Stetson International Moot Court Competitions. He is an Expert Advisor to Government of India and Government of Tamil Nadu in various departments and committees including the National Bio-Diversity Authority. He drafted ‘The Fishing Harbour Legislation’ for the Government of India and also drafted a State Law for ‘The Protection of Heritage Building’. He has participated and presented papers in nearly 200 national and international seminars. He has published more than 45 research articles in various reputed journals. He has co-edited a book titled ‘India and WTO (1996); co-authored a book titled Environmental Law (2001); authored a Book on Administrative Law for Madurai Kamaraj University and a book on Fundamental Rights for the University of Madras. He has been a Doctoral Fellow at The Hague Academy of International Law, Hague, Netherlands on Private and Public International law, Cardiff University, UK. He is the recipient of several laurels including the L.C. Miller Medal (1988); The Dr. A.L. Mudaliar Prize (1988); Doctoral Scholarship, the Hague Academy of International Law, The Hague, Netherlands (1993). He also holds membership of prestigious institutions including Comparative Law Academy, Pondicherry; Indian Society of International Law, New Delhi and Indian Institute of Law, New Delhi. His areas of specialization are International Law, Indian Constitutional law and Intellectual Property Law.

Note: The lecture is organized for the benefit of the aspiring Mooters. However, all are welcome to attend.