Private International Law Aspects of Marriage and Matrimonial Causes: The Indian Perspective, Prof. Lakshmi Jambholkar, Executive President, ISIL, April 24, 2014.

A guest lecture by Prof. Lakshmi Jambholkar, Executive President, ISIL on “Private International Law Aspects of Marriage and Matrimonial Causes: The Indian Perspective” was held at ITMU Law School on 24 April, 2014. She delivered a brief yet engaging lecture on how inter-country and NRI Marriages have posed a jurisdictional problem since long in India and discussed landmark judgments on the issue of formal and essential validity of marriages, domicile of Indian Married women and recognition and enforcement of foreign divorce decrees in India. She brought to fore the drawbacks of relying on the archaic law enshrined in the Indian Succession Act on married women's domicile and called for increased judicial activism especially by the apex court, to remedy the errors being caused by the law.
