School of Law and Centre for Post Graduate Legal Studies (CPGLS) jointly organized a one day International Seminar on “Surrogacy and Human Rights” on 7th November, 2014. Seminar was inaugurated by Mr. Hans Friedrich Schodder, the Deputy Chief of Mission, United Nations High Commissioner on Refugees (UNHCR) and Prof. (Dr.) Prem Vrat, Pro-Chancellor, ITMU. Prof. (Dr.) B. S. Panwar, Vice-Chancellor, ITMU and Prof. (Dr.) Sanoj Rajan, Director, School of Law also spoke on the occasion. Among various other experts Ms. Claire Achmad, Barrister and Solicitor, High Court of New Zealand and Surrogacy Law Expert shared her observations on “Surrogacy: An International Perspective”. Similarly Ms Pooja Yadav, Lawyer Lex Global, Surrogacy Legal Consultant placed her opinion on Surrogacy Laws India. The social impact of Fertility Tourism in the Indian economy was discussed by eminent panel experts like Ms. Sarojini, Sama - Resource Group of Women and Health, New Delhi along with Dr. Ranjana Kumari, Director, Centre for Social Research, New Delhi. Dr. Manasi Mishra, Centre for Social Research, New Delhi and Mr. Bajrang Singh, MD, Vansh Health Care, Gurgaon. The health standards in surrogacy were discussed by Dr. Sonia Malik, IVF, Max, Gurgaon, Dr and Rita Bakshi, Green Park Infertility Clinic, New Delhi in subsequent panel discussion. Later there were paper presentations by Ms. Titasha Banerjee, Assistant Professor, ITMU and Dr. Rajashekar, Assistant Professor, Madras University, which was chaired by Prof. Sanoj Rajan, Mr. Hans Friedrich Schodder and Ms. Claire Achmad. The entire event was covered by VIP News Channel, Haryana.