

REVISED SCHEME FOR RESEARCH PAPERS PUBLICATION
BY FACULTY MEMBERS

Eligibility:

- The papers indicating NCU's affiliation may be considered for the incentives from faculty members (Assistant Professors and Associate Professors) and PhD scholars of NCU.
- The awards are meant to encourage existing faculty and PhD scholars of NCU. Thus in case a faculty member is about to leave NCU or has already left, no award would be given.
- A major portion of the research work is expected to have been carried out at NCU. If any co-authors are involved, each of the authors has to be from a reputed university/institute/R&D establishment (of course the outside authors are not given any award)

Types of research papers:

Research papers published in the year (calendar year) under consideration, by the faculty singly or jointly with other faculty and or students in

- Reputed journals (National/International)
- Reputed science and engineering bulletins like IEEE magazine, Mechanical Engineering (ASME), Academies like INSA, INAE, Academy of Sciences, National Academy of Sciences etc.
- high impact open source journal even if these are paid

Papers in international conference proceedings will not be considered for award.

Types of Incentives:

The incentives could be either

- cash prize or
- Professional Development Fund (PDF) which may be used for academic related activities for further enhancing the capabilities of the concerned faculty members.

The award may be of amount of Rs. 40,000/- for a research paper that could be shared by the authors (Assistant Professor/Associate Professor/PhD students). However, in case of single author paper the award may be of amount Rs.25,000/-.

Mechanics of incentive Award:

Application in attached format (forwarded by Head of the Department) may be screened by PARC before sending it to external reviewers which can be experts from reputed institutes like IITs, IISc, IIMs, and CSIR research labs, IIITs or Distinguished Honorary Professors of NCU. An honorarium of Rs 1000/- per paper can be given to the external expert for reviewing the paper. The final awards can be decided by PARC based on the opinions of the reviews received from external experts. The final decision can be notified about the award after approval of the Governing Body on the recommendation of PARC

Number of awards:

School of Engineering and Technology – 03

School of Management – 01

School of Law – 01

Plagiarism:

Strict action including withdrawal of award and disciplinary action will be taken in case of a possible copy right issue, plagiarism or any unethical practice in carrying out the work.
