Administrative Action in the Event of Ragging

Cases of ragging will be dealt with by the Anti Ragging committee of the University. The University shall punish a student found guilty of ragging after following the procedure and in the manner prescribed herein under:

- i) On receipt of information by any member of the Committee from the Head, a student, parents or any source in writing or through any electronic media that an act of ragging is being committed or there is apprehension of the same, he shall intimate the same to the chairperson and may conduct a raid, if necessary, or take other appropriate steps to stop the act of ragging.
- ii) The member or the Committee may conduct on the spot inquiry observing a fair and transparent procedure and the principle of natural justice and shall give adequate opportunity to the victim student, student accused of ragging, other witnesses and may also ask them to produce other documents or witnesses, if necessary, concerning the incident of ragging.
- iii) The Committee shall submit a preliminary report to the Head within 72 hours of the incident for appropriate action under the Act.
- iv) Provided that in case an offence is committed under the provisions of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 (45 of 1860) and is a cognizable offence, the members should immediately report the matter to the Head.
- v) On receipt of information about ragging, the Head will direct the Committee to conduct an inquiry and report.

- vi) The Head shall examine the report and, if satisfied, will take appropriate action as per the gravity of the offence.
- vii) On receipt of the report from the Committee the Head shall immediately determine if a criminal offence is made out and, if so, either on his own motion or through a member of the Committee authorized by him, shall proceed to file a First Information Report (FIR) immediately.
- viii) Provided that the University shall also continue with its own inquiry and other measures without waiting for action on the part of the police.
- ix) If the Head is not satisfied with the report made by the Committee, he may himself conduct an independent enquiry and pass any appropriate orders in writing, for reasons to be recorded therein. He may also decide to lodge a First Information Report (FIR). If an offence is found to have been committed under the Indian Penal Code, 1860 (45 of 1860) and is a cognizable offence.
- x) In a proven case of ragging, whether First Information Report (FIR) has been lodged or not, the Head shall impose a punishment of suspension for at least a period of two semesters or one annual academic year, as the case may be, and may also impose any one or a combination of penalties as listed in clauses (i) to (x) of sub-section (5) above.
- xi) Depending upon the nature and gravity of the offence as reported by the Committee, the Head may, in addition to any punishment mentioned in paragraph (x) above, impose any one or a combination of the following punishments upon the student(s) found guilty:
 - a) Withholding or withdrawing scholarship or fellowship and other benefits
 - b) Forfeiting campus placement opportunities or recommendations

Provided that where the persons committing or abetting to the act of ragging are not identified, the University shall resort to collective punishment.

13. Attendance Rule & Code of Conduct in Classes

A student is expected to attend all lectures, tutorials and practice classes and VA courses etc. while maintaining full decorum and discipline during the classes. Also, students must be seated before the arrival of the faculty members. Late entry to the classroom is highly discouraged and is the sole discretion of the instructor.

As a rule, a student shall be required to have a minimum attendance of 70% in each individual theory/lab course in a semester, calculated till the last teaching day.

However, to provide wider exposure to students and increase visibility of the university at state/national & International level, the university encourages participation of talented students in well recognized competitions or any other such event approved by the university. Students nominated / deputed by the University for participation in these events/competitions shall be given due consideration for their absence from classes. This period shall be treated as Leave of Absence for attendance purposes. These leaves of absence shall be endorsed by the Chairman, Student Activities & Leadership committee & approved by the HOD before being sent to the ERP.

All such leaves of absence shall not exceed 10% of the classes in the semester. The concerned faculty shall ask these students to submit extra assignments to make up for academic losses.

The above requirements will not be relaxed under any circumstances whatsoever. Any medical and family exigency should be adjusted within the given room of 30% provided in this rule.

A student falling short of attendance in any course will be placed in the 'Detained' category for the course and the same will be mentioned in the grade sheet. The student must again register for such course(s) during subsequent semesters when the same are offered by the respective departments, provided timetable permits.

There will be a provision for issuing a written warning to the students if in any course, his/her attendance falls below 70% in any course till the completion of approximately half the number of teaching days in a semester as mentioned in the Academic Calendar for the semester concerned. It is the responsibility of the student to keep track that his / her attendance is not falling short.

Additionally, ERP portal updates attendance on daily basis and must be visited by students and parents regularly for timely corrective actions in case of any shortage in attendance in one or more courses.

16. Student Participation in Governance

As Students are members of the University campus, they have a substantial interest in the governance of the University. The Code, policies and the varied procedures laid down herein intends that the principle of student involvement in governance in both administrative and academic areas is essential. It is pivotal that students must, at all junctures, be encouraged to put forth their views and advice, for an informed and democratised decision making. Student Participation is encouraged and must be strengthened through the involvement of students at all levels. Therefore, all students who are a part of the University and who are going to be enrolled in the University are advised to uphold the policy and inform the University of any violations and assist individually and collectively to improve the quality and effectiveness of this Code and appended policies.

Every school of the University promotes the above concept by having students of the school as members of class committees, which have members of the staff also. The class committees meet at regular intervals and are reviewed by the Pro Chancellor, Vice Chancellor, Registrar, Dean Academics and others to address issues faced by the students.
